How much does it cost to ship a container overseas?

The total cost to ship a container overseas depends on several factors: For smaller shipments, partial container shipping (LCL) is a cheaper alternative. Here's a breakdown of the average overseas shipping costs for both 20ft and 40ft containers by region: Shipping a 20 ft container can range from $2,800 to $15,600 depending on destination.

How much does a full container load cost?

Full Container Load (FCL): This service is for shipments large enough to fill an entire container. FCL provides exclusive use of the container, offering greater security, faster transit times, and door-to-door control. On major trade lanes, FCL costs typically range from $800-$8,000+ per container, depending on the route and season.

How much does shipping a 20ft container cost?

Shipping a 20ft container ranges from $2,800 to $15,600, and a 40ft container from $1,865 to $23,415, depending on the route. Partial container shipping (LCL) is a cost-effective option for smaller moves, averaging around $1,600. Main cost factors include distance, volume, delivery method, and optional services like insurance, customs, or packing.

Will container shipping prices remain soft?

Between now and the end of the year, container shipping prices will likely remain soft, particularly if the current ceasefire between Israel and Palestine enables more shipping traffic to flow through the Suez canal. Here are some highlights from rates on major shipping routes for a 40ft container courtesy of Drewery Supply Chain Advisors:
